

Calendar

Tonight! Godpsell - July 9 at 8 PM in the NCS Theater. An Adirondack Lakes Center for the Arts production - tickets can be purchased at the door or by calling 352-7715 more at the Theater this summer

Spelling Bee - Aug 20 at 8PM

The Carnival of Illusion (Magicians Sarlot & Eyed) - Aug. 26 at 7 PM

Shakespeare in the Park (also Adirondack Lakes Center for the Arts) at the Town Beach - August 1 at 7 PM –Free

Also at the school theater, Erica Wheeler, signer songwriter, in concert on Aug. 14 at 7:30 PM - free

Huntington Lecture Series

July 15 – Amphibians and Reptiles of Adirondack Ecosystems: A Guide to Identification, Distribution and Conservation
Glenn Johnson, SUNY Potsdam

July 22 – Safeguarding Wildlife from Climate Change in the Adirondacks
George Gay, National Wildlife Federation

July 29 – Mushrooms of the Adirondacks
Susan Hopkins, Naturalist

August 5 – Timber Tiger: The Life and Times of the Chipmunk
Charlotte Demers, Biologist, Adirondack Ecological Center

August 12 – Adirondack Park: The Great Experiment in Conservation
Bill Porter, SUNY ESF, Ross Whaley, APA, and Jon Erickson, University of Vermont

August 19 – The Mercury Menace Part 2: Bioaccumulation in Songbirds in Adirondack Park
Amy Sauer, Syracuse University

The BOE will meet on July 12 at 7 PM

Pendleton Lacrosse Club forming: Anyone interested in playing pick-up lacrosse (or even just catch), please meet at the Newcomb School field at 7pm each Tuesday in July and August. For additional info or questions please contact Paul Hai at pbhai@esf.edu or 5481.

Town-Wide Garage Sale July 17 9-3 pm

Please sign-up by Monday July 12th so you can be on the map. Nancy Tracy
The Sunday School class at the Newcomb United Methodist Church will be holding a bake sale and selling hotdogs and hamburgers that day as a fundraiser for a trip to the Sights and Sounds Theater in Penn. this fall. At the church. Come and support the kids!

Iris taking over? Fighting your phlox? What to do with all those lilies? Date to be determined (September or October) for a Planting Party at the High Peaks Quad Garden. Donations and volunteer planters needed! Questions? Call Lorraine Miga 2402.

Thank you!

Big thank you to all the folks who helped sell food at the Little League Games!--
Jackie LaCourse

"Thank you for your prayers and donation, we truly appreciate it.
It will be a long recovery for Steven. Please continue to pray for him and his wife Rochelle.

The Turcotte Family."

Check it Out!

On June 24th, in a joint statement from SUNY-ESF and the APA, ESF announced the college's commitment to keeping the Newcomb VIC open and the trails accessible to the public:

<http://www.esf.edu/communications/view.asp?newsID=408>

Congratulations

Ed and Jackie La Course are proud to announce their son Jonas June has made the Deans list at HYCC and will be going to Potsdam in the fall.

Congratulations to the Newcomb class of 2010. Nice ceremony!