

Newcomb Town Tattler December 7th, 2008

**Calendar****

The Russian delegates arrive on Friday, December 5th and will be leaving on Saturday, December 13th. It is quite an honor to have been chosen to host this group. Many of you will be seeing them in town and at miscellaneous events including our Holiday Concert and basketball games. Please feel free to welcome them to our community. Special thanks to our host families for agreeing to house our guests.

Newcomb Central School Holiday Concert is Thursday, December 11th

Class of 2009 will be offering a chicken and biscuit dinner before the concert.

December 14th the children of the Newcomb United Methodist Church will be performing their adaptation of the classic Russian folktale by Leo Tolstoi about the Christmas guest. Service starts at 9:00pm. All are welcome!

Long Lake Community Chorus Winter Concert

Mark your calendar: there are two chances to enjoy both well-known and unique musical selections sung by your neighbors from around the central Adirondacks.

Saturday, December 13, Long Lake Town Hall, 8 PM

Sunday, December 14, Newcomb Central School, 2 PM

Concerts will be approximately one hour long followed by punch and cookies. The chorus is led by former LL Music Director Karin Cook. Come enjoy some holiday spirit and sing along!

Newcomb Central School student's TRIP and RIP presentations are scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, December 17th and all day Thursday, December 18th. Community is welcome.

Mark Perry, vocalist, will perform a Christmas Concert Friday, Dec 19 at 6:30pm at the Newcomb United Methodist Church. All are welcome!! Donations to benefit the Christine Perry Memorial Trust, which supports other teens.
